

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time August 2, 2020

All you who are thirsty,
come to the water!

— Isaiah 55:1a

FESTIVAL THANK YOU Thank you to everyone that made our two processions to honor Our Lady of Mt. Carmel a so memorable. A special thanks to Fr. Justin for the wonderful Thursday procession and recitation of the Rosary and the special Sunday Mass. Thank you, Matt and Dean for the beautiful flowers and also Fran Branthoover for donating the Altar Flowers. Thank You, Philomena and the Cantors for the beautiful music and also a special thanks to the Crabtree VFD for all of their help and organization of the parade route on Sunday. Thank You Julie Watkins for taking pictures at both events and thanks to Ray, Annie and Carmen for the beautiful singing of the Ave Maria at the Thursday event. Thanks to all those involved in getting the permit for the procession on Sunday and thank you Dominic and Hanna for all of their help with everything, as well as a big thanks to the DeFabo family for the battery. Thank you Nat Pantalone for your donation of purchasing the festival tickets as well as the bottles of water. Thanks for everyone that works behind the scenes to get things ready, and for all who participated in some way to make the processions a success. For all of those that walked in the processions, carried a torch, a picture, a flag, a banner, pulled a flower cart and carried the Statue of the Blessed Mother through town....thank you, thank you, thank you. It was definitely different this year, but we are so thankful that we were able to honor Our Lady in some small way. Stay safe and healthy.

SAINT JOHN MARY VIANNEY (1786-1859)
August 4

A busy pastor jokingly suggests the secret of John Vianney's holiness: "He died seventeen years before telephones!" Call they didn't, but visit they did, keeping Vianney eighteen hours a day in the confessional. Stories abound of reading hearts and exorcisms, but Vianney's first miracle was getting ordained. Difficulty with studies delayed him, prompting the rector's apology to the bishop, "So far to ordain just one, especially this one!" The bishop, who could not know he was ordaining the future patron saint of parish priests, replied, "No burden to ordain one good priest!" In Ars, only an elderly handful attended Mass, "praying," one told Vianney, "for a priest with brains." But he stayed forty-two years, fulfilling the promise he made the day he arrived. In a sculpture just outside the village Vianney points skyward: "Show me the way to Ars," he tells a boy, "and I'll show you the way to heaven." To someone who feared there was no heaven beyond the grave, Vianney smiled, "My child, it would have been heaven enough to have lived as Jesus' disciple on earth."
