MESSAGE FROM FR. JUSTIN MATRO Thank You for your generous support! Since mid March until this month, we have not been able to celebrate public Mass or raise extra income through fund raising and Bingo. Nonetheless, many of you never missed a weekly contribution and a number of you have made special donations to assist with operation expenses. I know that many of you have been financially affected by this national shut down, and this makes your contributions all the more appreciated. May God bless you all. Fr. Justin, O.S.B.

WE WILL BE HAVING A FAUX FESTIVAL!!!!

While the details are still being worked out, we ask that parishioners who normally support our parish by attending the festival contribute what they would normally spend were they to come to the festival. This event is a large source of income and after several months without fund raising activities, we could use the support.

SAINT KATERI TEKAKWITHA (1656-1680)

July 14

Though the New York State Thruway runs close by the North American Martyrs' Shrine, traffic's roar never pierces the peace enveloping Auriesville—Ossernon to Native Americans—in the lovely Mohawk Valley, where Kateri Tekakwitha was born barely ten years after the martyrdom of Isaac Jogues and his Jesuit and lay companions. Daughter of a Christian Algonquin mother and non-Christian Mohawk chief, Kateri's parents died in a smallpox epidemic widely blamed on the missionaries. Moreover, many Native Americans had experienced exploitation at the hands of “Christian” traders and trappers, further discrediting the faith Kateri embraced in baptism, then pledged to live even more intensely in vowed virginity. Misunderstanding led to harassment, prompting her move to a Christian village farther north along the Saint Lawrence River. Despite this, Kateri's faith remained undaunted, her selfless charity undiminished. Both before and after her death at twenty-four, this young “Lily of the Mohawks” drew countless converts to Christ by the fragrance of her goodness. Through us, does “the aroma of Christ” (2 Corinthians 2:15), attract others to the beauty of his gospel?
