

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 26, 2020

All things work for good for those who love God.

— Romans 8:28a

FESTIVAL THANK YOU Thank you to everyone that made our two processions to honor Our Lady of Mt. Carmel a so memorable. A special thanks to Fr. Justin for the wonderful Thursday procession and recitation of the Rosary and the special Sunday Mass. Thank you, Matt and Dean for the beautiful flowers and also Fran Branthoover for donating the Altar Flowers. Thank You, Philomena and the Cantors for the beautiful music and also a special thanks to the Crabtree VFD for all of their help and organization of the parade route on Sunday. Thank You Julie Watkins for taking pictures at both events and thanks to Ray, Annie and Carmen for the beautiful singing of the Ave Maria at the Thursday event. Thanks to all those involved in getting the permit for the procession on Sunday and thank you Dominic and Hanna for all of their help with everything, as well as a big thanks to the DeFabo family for the battery. Thank you Nat Pantalone for your donation of purchasing the festival tickets as well as the bottles of water. Thanks for everyone that works behind the scenes to get things ready, and for all who participated in some way to make the processions a success. For all of those that walked in the processions, carried a torch, a picture, a flag, a banner, pulled a flower cart and carried the Statue of the Blessed Mother through town....thank you, thank you, thank you. It was definitely different this year, but we are so thankful that we were able to honor Our Lady in some small way. Stay safe and healthy.

WEEKDAY AND WEEKEND MASSES Starting the month of August we were in high hopes of returning all of our Mass celebrations into St. Bartholomew Church. Due to governor Wolfes new ruling. We will continue to have weekday Masses in the church and all weekend Masses in Marian Hall. We are so sorry for the miss information.

BENEDICTINE ANNUAL APPEAL Saint Vincent Archabbey, Latrobe

For nearly 150 years, the Saint Vincent Benedictines have been doing Gods work in this world by responding to the spiritual and educational needs of people at home and in missionary fields abroad.

We express our sincere gratitude for your support of our community's work in the past, and now invite you to be partners with us for our future.

We ask you to be as generous as you can in your response to our Benedictine Annual Appeal. A special collection will be taken up at all Masses this Saturday and Sunday.

If you have any questions, concerns, or suggestions about security at St. Barts we'd love to hear from you. Email the security team at StBartSecurity@dioceseofgreensburg.org.

See something, say something!

PLEASE KEEP IN YOUR PRAYERS THOSE ON SAINT BART'S SICK LIST: Dottie Bacher, Mary Beth Cox, Raymond Falbo, Tommy Herman, David Howell, Ann Klimchock, Parker Muto, Chris Nemchik, Ralph and Roxie Pagano, Ralph Penteck, Mary Ann Riebel, Casimir Tamoliunas, Autumn Zundel.

SAINT MARTHA (first century)
July 29

Whether you find Martha Stewart admirable or annoying, she has the perfect patron saint. Luke describes Martha—saint, not Stewart—as “burdened with much serving” (Luke 10:40). About Mary, seated, listening to Jesus, Martha complained, “Do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving?” Jesus’ response, “Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things . . . Mary has chosen the better part” (10:41, 42), suggests to some the superiority of the contemplative life, leaving the rest of us, supporting families, earning livings, (helping others?), as second-class Christians. But Luke introduces Martha and Mary immediately after Jesus’ parable of the Good Samaritan, whom Jesus recommends as a model of practical compassion, concluding, “Go and do likewise” (10:37). Go and do! Sit and listen! Discipleship is never either/or but both/and. Jesus ministered in prayerful silence and hospitable service. Monastic calendars add Martha’s sister, Mary, and brother, Lazarus, calling all three “hosts of the Lord,” recalling their welcome of Jesus to their home in Bethany, reminding us Whom we welcome whenever we extend summertime hospitality!
