CRY FOR HELP!!! As many of you are aware, our Parish has been financially reliant on a lot of extraordinary fund raising apart from our weekly collection. Unfortunately, since the COVID-19 pandemic has hit, almost all of those sources of income have dissolved; Bingo, the festival and reduced sales of the $3900 tickets. In addition, the decline in Mass attendance, weekly offerings have been greatly reduced. I know that this pandemic has affected many families, but I plead that, if you are able, to increase your weekly offering or make a one time donation. I have never asked for money without a specific objective in mind: the new carpet, and the painting of the Stations of the Cross, and statues. Sadly, I must now ask that those who are able to help, keep our Parish in the black. I appreciate your consideration, and only ask that those who are able to help out.

In Christ,

Fr. Justin Matro O.S.B.

COLLECTION FOR RETIRED RELIGIOUS AND DIOCESAN PRIESTS TO BE OCTOBER 31-NOVEMBER 1 The collection for Retired Religious and Diocesan Priests will be conducted in the Diocese of Greensburg this weekend October 31 and November 1. Since 1999, this collection has helped support the retired diocesan priests' fund. Twenty-five percent of the total of this year's collection will be designated for that purpose, and the remainder of the collection will be passed on to the National Religious Retirement Office for distribution to the various religious communities applying for assistance. Today, the majority of women religious in congregations and men in religious orders are past age 60, and a significant number are past age 80. Many institutes do not have the resources to meet the dramatically escalating costs of care for their growing populations of elderly. This collection helps meet that need.

SAINT MARTIN DE PORRES (1579-1639)

November 3

An old illustration pictures Martin de Porres, finger to his lips—“Shhhh!”—as several mice peek out of sacristy vestment drawers, preparing to join a rodent “procession” following him out of church! Martin’s rescue of these unwelcome guests, and statues depicting him, broom in hand, feeding a dog, cat, bird, and mouse from the same dish symbolize his life and sanctity. Initially denied entrance by the Dominicans because of his mixed race (Spanish father, Panamanian mother), Martin cherished society’s marginalized. For him, menial tasks, lovingly done, were sacred. Great and lowly alike feasted on his charity. Enemies were reconciled by this “poor mulatto” (his self-description), kind even to those whose racism demeaned him. Apprenticed to a surgeon-barber in his youth—thus patron saint of hair stylists and public health providers—Martin dispensed healing and dignity to Lima’s poorest, serving in them the Christ he adored for hours in the Blessed Sacrament. By the time he died, all Peru called him Martin the Charitable, a title even those of us who will never be called “saint” might still aspire to.
